The OU BOCES/Division of Instructional Support Services has been awarded a Teaching is the Core (TITC) Grant from the New York State Department of Education. This grant supports the Division of Instructional Support Services work with thirteen school districts to explore strategies for improving the quality of assessments and assuring that educational programs are focused on high-quality, coordinated teaching, learning, and assessment of learning.

Through June 30, 2015, administrators and teachers will engage in special TITC forums and workshops designed to enhance best practices in curriculum, instruction, and especially assessment. All of the TITC workshops are posted on My Learning Plan. Click Here to access the workshops.

The thirteen participating districts are: Chester, Cornwall, Florida, Goshen, Greenwood Lake, Highland Falls/Fort Montgomery, Marlboro, Minisink, Monroe-Woodbury, Newburgh, Port Jervis, Valley Central and Warwick.
